

THE ITALIAN AMBASSADOR VISITS CENER

Sarriguren (Navarra), 9 May 2011.- The Italian Ambassador in Spain, Leonardo Visconti di Modrone, has visited the headquarters of the National Renewable Energy Centre in Sarriguren today, taking advantage of his stay in Navarra on the occasion of Europe Day.

The Italian diplomat was accompanied on this occasion by his wife, by the First Secretary of the Italian Embassy, Emanuele Rozo Sordini, as well as by Juan Franco, Director General for International Development and Carmen Mier, Director for International Outreach, both from the Government of Navarra.

During their visit to CENER, the Director General of the centre, Jose Javier Armendariz, has explained to them the main research and testing projects that are carried out and they have also been able to visit the technological installations.

More information: www.cener.com